

Proclamation

I am here at the command of the Lord Jesus Christ — whose I am, and whom I serve.

I am a member of the Body of Christ, and in His Name, which is above every name that exists, I have come here.

I have authority to do God's will here, in accordance with the Bible.

I am operating in the authority of Jesus' Great Commission (recorded in Matthew 28:18-20, and Mark 16:15-20). I am here to make disciples, who will help proclaim the Good News of Jesus to everyone in this city of _____ and its metro area.

I claim this territory and its people for my Lord Jesus Christ.

I take authority over every evil spirit operating in this city. I command you to desist in your maneuvers and stop your operations here.

I command you evil spirits who have been operating here, and blinding people to the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to come down from your place of illegitimate authority.

I proclaim that all captives are free to choose Jesus Christ and to receive His deliverance and blessing.

I enforce the victory of my Lord Jesus Christ, which was won by shedding His own precious blood.

I proclaim that Jesus is Lord of the city of _____.

I proclaim that the will of the Lord Jesus Christ will be done here in this city.

I proclaim that in this city the Gospel of Jesus Christ will be freely preached, and as a result the sick will be healed, the dead will be raised, and the captives will go free.

Jesus Christ is Lord, right here and right now!

Jesus Christ is Lord of this city and its people!
